

PLANO WALKING CLUB (PWC)
PWC New and Renewal Membership Form (2016Rev1)

The Plano Walking Club, (formerly the Plano Plodders) founded in 1982, is dedicated to promoting walking for health and fitness. The club promotes non-competitive walking and other family oriented sports activities in Plano (Collin County). These events provide participants the benefit of outdoor activity without excessive physical demands. Our walks are open to anyone who likes to walk. Our organization also promotes trail development and encourages a healthy lifestyle enhanced by frequent walking opportunities. We are part of the world-wide Volkssporting (IVV) program (American Volkssport Association – AVA) with participants in more than 40 countries. Members of the PWC receive weekly email updates with information about upcoming events, walking news and announcements of club activities. The word “Volkssport” comes from a German term that literally means “sport of the people”. The word “Volkssport” comes from a German term that literally means “sport of the people”.
